

Find Dead Man in Church Entry.
Persons who visited St. Michael's Church, Lawrence and Tillary streets, Brooklyn, for early mass today came on a man lying in the entry. The man was dead of natural causes. Later Philip Kelly of No. 351 Manhattan avenue identified the man as his uncle, Matthew Mulvaney. His body was taken to the Adams street station.

"NEARLY MARRIED" SIGN HID TAXICAB'S NUMBER, SO WEDDING IS DELAYED

"We're Not Eloping," Shouts Groom to Motor Cycle Policeman—Chauffeur Set Free.

A taxicab, operated by Louis Danenberg, twenty-nine years old, of No. 1522 Vyse avenue, the Bronx, was chugging through Bergen avenue, at One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, early yesterday evening when Motorcycle Patrolman Silberbauer of the Traffic Squad drew alongside.

"You've got the number on the back of your machine concealed. I'll have to serve you with a summons," called Silberbauer as the machine came to a stop.

There was a cry of surprise from a young woman seated in the machine. The man at her side sought to quiet her fears.

"We're not eloping," he said, "and everything is all right."

On the back of the taxicab had been affixed a large placard which covered part of the machine, as well as the number-plate. On the placard, in letters six inches high, was printed:

"WE ARE NEARLY WED."

Danenberg thrust the summons in his pocket and the taxicab continued to a hall at Lenox avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, where the couple in the car went through the wedding ceremony. The placard had, however, been removed by the groom-to-be, described by the chauffeur as E. Epstein of No. 321 Fox street, the Bronx.

Danenberg was today arraigned before Magistrate Appleton in the Morrisania Court.

"It was just a practical joke played by one of Mr. Epstein's friends," explained the chauffeur.

Sentence was suspended on Danenberg.

SAYS AMERICAN GIRL IS MOST ATTRACTIVE OF ANY IN THE WORLD

Beautiful Woman Playwright Wrote Act of New Play on Trip Over.

Inclement weather and rough seas marked the passage across from Liverpool to the steamship Carmanica of the Cunard Line, which reached this port today, bringing a total of 371 passengers, 12 of whom were first class.

Mrs. Harold Gort, a playwright and once called the most beautiful woman in London, was a passenger, bringing with her a play of her own writing, the second act of which she wrote on the ship coming across. She expects to produce it here this winter.

Mrs. Gort praised the American girl, calling her the most attractive in the world, but admitting that she knew little of the American man. "I have never been able to find him," she said. "He seems to be always at business, making money with which to clothe his beautiful wife, until the American woman is the best dressed in the world."

—the leader of fashion wherever she goes.
Mrs. Gort rode in the recent parade of the suffragists in London and was asked if she favored their cause.

"No, I am not a suffragette," she said, "and I rode in that parade simply because they gave me a beautiful gown to wear."

LOST WALLET ON "L" TRAIN.

Batman Survivor Has Fellow Passenger Arrested.

Antonio Sanchez, a survivor of the steamship Bahia, who arrived here last week aboard the rescue ship Panama of the Cunard line, lost a wallet containing 700 francs and $57 in United States currency on a northbound Third Avenue "L" train at Chatham Square last night.

Sanchez suspected a man who had stopped suddenly in front of him, and when the latter alighted at Canal street, the next station, Sanchez followed and pointed him out to Policeman Hays of the 10th street station. The man will be John Bates of No. 248 West One Hundred and Sixteenth street.

In the Centre Street Court today Bates, who, the police say, has a long record, asked for an adjournment until Wednesday to get a lawyer, and Magistrate Brown held him in $1,000 bail. None of Sanchez's money was found in his pockets.

10,000 SELECTED TURKEYS

Every year we make it our aim to quote the lowest price on good Turkeys in New York. This we carry out, and often it means a loss of many dollars and cents to us.

Extra fancy, fresh killed and dry picked hen or Tom Turkeys, everyone plump and selected. These Turkeys came to us direct from the famous poultry raising farms of Virginia, Vermont, Maryland, Michigan and Rhode Island.

We again emphasize the statement that these birds are fresh killed—for no others will be handled by us. We guarantee the quality of these turkeys and assure you of absolute satisfaction.

To insure best selection and early delivery place your order early. Quantities reasonably restricted to prevent Dealers from buying.
